News media sources are showing live footage of rioting and civil unrest in Minneapolis, resulting from 4 officers being terminated for allegedly causing the death of George Floyd, an adult male black. News is also reporting that BLM members are protesting in Downtown LA. There is no current intel that indicated protests are pending tonight in Long Beach, however, as a precautionary measure, officers will be carrying their MFF gear and asked to pay close attention to the downtown/Civic Center area. Watch Commanders will continue to monitor situational changes locally and nationwide.
