I was contacted by Chief Saffell from Gardenia PD. He told me that several years ago, one of his officers was involved in an OIS in which the suspect died. The family is being represented by BLM and are currently suing the City. The Department was contacted by BLM and told that they were going to print up 100K flyers with the officers information on it. The Officer lives in our city. At this time there is no indication when/if this will occur. The Chief said the officer is concerned for his safety. At this point, Gardenia is not planning on putting any of their officers at the location, but is asking for our assistance with a DCC of the residence.

The officers name is [REDACTED] and his address is [REDACTED]. His cell # is [REDACTED]. Due to the hour, I have not contacted him.

The point of contact for Gardenia PD is Lt. [REDACTED]. His cell # is [REDACTED].

Please have officers DCC the residence. CIS Lt. Lebaron and Commander O'Dowd have been notified.

Respectfully,

Gary DePhillippo

Lieutenants,

Please see the attached EAP for this weekend. It was put together in a bit of haste so may have some typos and not cover absolutely everything, but please know that you are responsible for being familiar with its contents, especially the Command Direction section the "Watch Commander Shall".

In a nutshell,

- All uniformed units in the field shall be in 2 officer units (this includes Marine Patrol, LBCC, etc) – Notify them
- We've split patrol into CFS units and Task Force Units
 - CFS units will work under the WC
 - TF units will work primarily under the TF Lieutenant (WC when TF Lt. is not on-duty)
 - Saturday – TF Lt. Solomita 1200-2200
 - Sunday – TF Lt. Wood 1200-2200
 - Monday - TBA

- Your biggest challenge will be bringing in extra resources if needed (the DOC has been activated and is a resource)
- MAKE SURE YOU, YOUR SERGEANTS and YOUR OFFICERS understand the objectives and their individual roles.

Please call me if you have question or need further explanation.

Hi All,

FYSA,

No planned events tonight in Long Beach

No planned events in Los Angeles tonight; however, LAPD has info/intel causing them to ramp up and increase staffing.

- Per LAPD COP Moore, their protest yesterday was “more violent” than the event that closed the 101 freeway.

- No details of what “more violent” is but they had an officer injured during the protest.

Currently media is reporting peaceful protests in:

- San Jose: <https://abc7news.com/watch/live/>
- Oakland: <https://abc7news.com/society/demonstrators-march-peacefully-through-oakland-to-protest-george-floyd-death/6219362/>

The COP spoke with the Minneapolis COP, who seemed confident their activity should start slowing down beginning tonight (we shall see)

- Criminal charges against the other three officers on scene
- 2000 hour curfew starting tonight

Starting tomorrow

- Patrol resources will be partnered up
- All stations will have someone “guarding” each facility
- Additional resources will be brought in to patrol potential “hot spots” throughout the city
- An extra Lt will be scheduled (1200-2200 hours) to manage the extra resources and anything related to protests
 - Saturday – Lt Solomita
 - Sunday – Lt Woods
- The DOC will be operational
- We will provide situational awareness to the DOC regarding:
 - Relevant intel/info from LAPD, LASO, and the JRIC
 - Local trends

Just so there is no duplicate work,

- We were adv of a possible online threat by Subject [REDACTED]
 - This has been vetted
 - No threat
 - Work up is on Chris’ desk

We continue to get notified of posts by Antifa encouraging people to destroy/vandalize Blue Lives Matter flags and stickers

- We sent an Intel Bulletin out yesterday and Patrol Bureau resent today addressing this
- This is a general threat, nothing specific
- We have not seen any video proof or pictures actually depicting flags or stickers being vandalize

Protest Scheduled for Long Beach, on Sunday, May 31, at 1500 hours, at the Main Police Station

- This is a new event getting limited attention on the organizer’s account
- LB Antifa has re-posted the event and has a much larger following/influence
- I will forward a separate email with additional info

If available to work and you want to, we will start at 1200 hours and meet in the office. Please advise if you will be coming in (not mandatory).

- I have received multiple calls and questions/concerns regarding an online post about the "Blue Lives Challenge" to destroy or vandalize Blue Lives Matter stickers and flags. Ryan drafted an Intel Bulletin that was distributed Department wide yesterday that addressed this topic. If asked, refer to the bulletin and yes, we are aware of these general threats/concerns but are unaware of any specific threat to LBPd.

Hi All,

With the increase of protests nationally, the Department is preparing for the potential response to a large scale protest/civil unrest related to events in Minneapolis. I want to keep everyone up to date on CIS related topics:

The officer involved in the George Floyd incident was arrested today (only one officer at this time).

There are multiple events occurring in Long Beach and the LA AOR in the next few days:

- Saturday, May 30
 - PSL Car Caravan Protest in Long Beach, 1300-1600 hours
 - BLM-LA Justice for George Floyd Protest in Los Angeles, 1500 hours (multiple events organized nationally)
 - The concern is this event could spill over to LB or encourage local activists to host an event

- Currently, no LB event planned
- Sunday, May 31
 - NSTR
- Monday, June 1
 - Minister's Alliance - Justice for George Floyd Rally at the Courthouse at 1000 hours
 - Commander Pennino will notify appropriate personnel at the Courthouse
 - LB Forward Census Car Caravan in the DTLB area, 1700-1900 hours

We continue to see strong support for the Minneapolis community but locally, activists are encouraging monetary support versus hosting an event

We have assessed camera coverage of all Police facilities

Both C5 vehicles will be charged and ready for deployment if needed

We have not been asked to work this weekend but please let me know your availability.

Thank you,

We continue to get notified of posts by Antifa encouraging people to destroy/vandalize Blue Lives Matter flags and stickers

- This is a general threat, nothing specific
- We have not seen any video proof or pictures actually depicting flags or stickers being vandalize

Protest Scheduled for Long Beach, on Sunday, May 31, at 1500 hours, at the Main Police Station

- This is a new event getting limited attention on the organizer's account
- LB Antifa has re-posted the event and has a much larger following/influence
- I will forward a separate email with additional info

If available to work and you want to, we will start at 1200 hours and meet in the office. Please advise if you will be coming in (not mandatory).

- I have received multiple calls and questions/concerns regarding an online post about the "Blue Lives Challenge" to destroy or vandalize Blue Lives Matter stickers and flags. This "challenge" is circulating online but there are no specific threats. Hi All,

With the increase of protests nationally, the Department is preparing for the potential response to a large scale protest/civil unrest related to events in Minneapolis. I want to keep everyone up to date on CIS related topics:

The officer involved in the George Floyd incident was arrested today (only one officer at this time).

There are multiple events occurring in Long Beach and the LA AOR in the next few days:

- Saturday, May 30
 - PSL Car Caravan Protest in Long Beach, 1300-1600 hours
 - BLM-LA Justice for George Floyd Protest in Los Angeles, 1500 hours (multiple events organized nationally)
 - The concern is this event could spill over to LB or encourage local activists to host an event
 - Currently, no LB event planned
- Sunday, May 31
 - NSTR
- Monday, June 1
 - Minister's Alliance - Justice for George Floyd Rally at the Courthouse at 1000 hours
 - Commander Pennino will notify appropriate personnel at the Courthouse
 - LB Forward Census Car Caravan in the DTLB area, 1700-1900 hours

We continue to see strong support for the Minneapolis community but locally, activists are encouraging monetary support versus hosting an event

We have assessed camera coverage of all Police facilities

Both C5 vehicles will be charged and ready for deployment if needed

We have not been asked to work this weekend but please let me know your availability.

Thank you,
Jason

In accordance with department directive, please ensure your teams are aware of the social unrest occurring nationwide related to the death of George Floyd, and the possibility it could spread to Long Beach.

In light of that that, starting tonight, and running through this weekend, all field officers are being assigned to two-officer units.

If on a motor, officers should always be close enough to assist each other if needed.

K9, please roll in tandem with another unit.

We're looking for high visibility, with officers exercising good discretion and judgement on enforcement actions.

One officer has been assigned to each patrol division for station protection from 1800-0400 hours.

This will continue until notified otherwise.

Please closely DCC FSD.

 - This has been vetted
 - No threat
 - Work up is on Chris’ desk

We continue to get notified of posts by Antifa encouraging people to destroy/vandalize Blue Lives Matter flags and stickers

- We sent an Intel Bulletin out yesterday and Patrol Bureau resent today addressing this
- This is a general threat, nothing specific

- We have not seen any video proof or pictures actually depicting flags or stickers being vandalize

Protest Scheduled for Long Beach, on Sunday, May 31, at 1500 hours, at the Main Police Station

- This is a new event getting limited attention on the organizer's account
- LB Antifa has re-posted the event and has a much larger following/influence
- I will forward a separate email with additional info

If available to work and you want to, we will start at 1200 hours and meet in the office. Please advise if you will be coming in (not mandatory).

Hi All,

With the increase of protests nationally, the Department is preparing for the potential response to a large scale protest/civil unrest related to events in Minneapolis. I want to keep everyone up to date on CIS related topics:

The officer involved in the George Floyd incident was arrested today (only one officer at this time).

There are multiple events occurring in Long Beach and the LA AOR in the next few days:

- Saturday, May 30
 - PSL Car Caravan Protest in Long Beach, 1300-1600 hours
 - BLM-LA Justice for George Floyd Protest in Los Angeles, 1500 hours (multiple events organized nationally)
 - The concern is this event could spill over to LB or encourage local activists to host an event
 - Currently, no LB event planned
- Sunday, May 31
 - NSTR
- Monday, June 1
 - Minister's Alliance - Justice for George Floyd Rally at the Courthouse at 1000 hours
 - Commander Pennino will notify appropriate personnel at the Courthouse
 - LB Forward Census Car Caravan in the DTLB area, 1700-1900 hours

We continue to see strong support for the Minneapolis community but locally, activists are encouraging monetary support versus hosting an event

We have assessed camera coverage of all Police facilities

Both C5 vehicles will be charged and ready for deployment if needed

We have not been asked to work this weekend but please let me know your availability.

Thank you,

Watch Commanders,

We are currently preparing an EAP for this weekend to address the nationwide protests involving the death of George Floyd. This email is to update you on some of our preparations for this weekend.

- Commencing Watch one tonight, all units will be two officer cars
- Some designators will be issued to cover two beats (there will not be a black and white assigned to every beat)
- Units over minimum will be assigned as Task Force Units: The mission of these units will be to provide high visibility within their division and not a proactive stance. For example; patrolling main thoroughfares, strip malls and other areas where Commanders believe can be problematic
- Task Force Units will do a 2-hour rotation at their respective stations to ensure no 925 activity or crowds gather in front of stations
- There will be an extra Lieutenant working the field on Saturday (Lt. Solomita) and Sunday (Lt. Woods) from 1200-2200 hours. This Lieutenant will be responsible for ensuring the mission of the Task Force Units are followed
- Extra Lieutenants and the WC please communicate with each other and provide timely updates to the Duty Chief
- Any extra 1 person units shall be assigned to a Task Force Unit

Further information will be noted on the EAP when it is released.

Good afternoon,

This morning the Investigations Bureau released the attached Intelligence Bulletin. Please encourage officers to exercise increased awareness related to officer safety at this time. As the attached bulletin states, CIS is not currently aware of any specific threats against LBPD or our personnel. However, numerous online groups are advocating for violence against law enforcement in general.

CIS will continue to share pertinent intelligence as it becomes available with the Patrol Bureau. As we saw last night many of the events associated with the George Floyd protests develop rapidly and one of the best sources of information is often field observations. Please do not hesitate to contact CIS if personnel observe or receive calls that indicate situations are developing which could require significant police response. If something develops that as the Watch Commander, you believe CIS could assist with, feel free to contact the on-call detective or you are welcome to call my cell phone (██████████) and I will coordinate resources for you.

This “challenge” is circulating online but there are no specific threats. Ryan drafted an Intel Bulletin that was distributed Department wide yesterday that addressed this topic. If asked, refer to the bulletin and yes, we are aware of these general threats/concerns but are unaware of any specific threat to LBPD.
- LASD Intel was notified of the event at the Courthouse on Monday.

Hi All,

With the increase of protests nationally, the Department is preparing for the potential response to a large scale protest/civil unrest related to events in Minneapolis. I want to keep everyone up to date on CIS related topics:

The officer involved in the George Floyd incident was arrested today (only one officer at this time).

There are multiple events occurring in Long Beach and the LA AOR in the next few days:

- Saturday, May 30
 - PSL Car Caravan Protest in Long Beach, 1300-1600 hours
 - BLM-LA Justice for George Floyd Protest in Los Angeles, 1500 hours (multiple events organized nationally)
 - The concern is this event could spill over to LB or encourage local activists to host an event
 - Currently, no LB event planned
- Sunday, May 31

- NSTR
- Monday, June 1
 - Minister's Alliance - Justice for George Floyd Rally at the Courthouse at 1000 hours
 - Commander Pennino will notify appropriate personnel at the Courthouse
 - LB Forward Census Car Caravan in the DTLB area, 1700-1900 hours

We continue to see strong support for the Minneapolis community but locally, activists are encouraging monetary support versus hosting an event

We have assessed camera coverage of all Police facilities

Both C5 vehicles will be charged and ready for deployment if needed

We have not been asked to work this weekend but please let me know your availability.

Thank you,
Jason

I will be sending out updates as needed to keep everyone informed and on the same page.

- I have received multiple calls and questions/concerns regarding an online post about the “Blue Lives Challenge” to destroy or vandalize Blue Lives Matter stickers and flags. This “challenge” is circulating online but there are no specific threats. Below is a message that will be going out shortly via social media.

As a Chief of Police, I was shocked and saddened to learn of the circumstances surrounding the tragic death of George Floyd in Minneapolis, earlier this week. The actions of these officers are directly in conflict with the oath we have taken to protect and serve, and also violate the public trust that we have worked so hard to build in our communities.

The Long Beach Police Department is committed to ensuring the safety and well-being of those who are in our care and custody. As part of our values, we are committed to treating all people with respect and providing our officers with the tools and training to safely interact with our community.

We truly value the relationships that we have built with our community and are committed to maintaining open lines of communication on issues that impact public safety in our City.
