Crisis Intervention and Behavioral Health Training Course

Dear Law Enforcement Professional,

Are you equipped to deal with the ever-growing mentally ill population in your community? Do you have all the necessary tools to interact effectively with the mentally ill? Can you determine if a subject is on a substance, is mentally ill or has a developmental disability?

Today, police officers are becoming mental health first responders and are often inadequately trained for this task. Tragedies between the police and the mentally ill are occurring more frequent. One "bad incident" can cause devastation to families, the mental health community, police officers and police agencies. Sadly, we are also seeing police officers and police chiefs losing their careers over some of these high profile types of interactions, not to mention the civil penalties being awarded in these cases.

Embassy Consulting Services, LLC has trained over 6,000 law enforcement professionals on how to interact effectively with the mentally ill and is proud to announce it's newest 8-hour class titled "Crisis Intervention and Behavior Health Training". This course satisfies the requirements of Senate Bill 29 which mandates that all Field Training Officers receive 8-hours of Crisis Intervention Training. This class is co-facilitated by Dr. Elijah Levy, a clinical psychologist who has over 25 years experience working with the mentally ill and Josef Levy, a retired police commander who has over 30 years of law enforcement experience.

Please see the attached flyer for our upcoming class being held at the Seal Beach Police Department on Monday, March 13, 2017. Embassy is also accepting reservations to deliver this class at your agency. If you are interested in having your FTO's or other personnel trained, please contact Josef Levy at (562) 577-5874 or at embassyecs@ymail.com.

Dear Law Enforcement Professional,

Does this scenario sound familiar?

A family member calls the police about a mentally ill relative who is off their medicine and having a crisis. When the police arrive, the subject fails to comply with the officers commands. In response, the officers begin to shout orders and draw their weapons. The crisis escalates and the subject grabs a nearby object, a kitchen knife or a screwdriver. The officers discharge their weapons and the mentally ill subject dies.

As you know, police officers are becoming mental health first responders and are often inadequately trained for this task. Tragedies between the police and the mentally ill are occurring daily. One "bad incident" can cause devastation to families, police officers and the agency they represent.

To help fill this unmet need, Embassy Consulting Services, LLC has designed a class titled "Interacting Effectively with the Mentally Ill". Embassy has trained over five thousand law enforcement professionals with this popular class. This engaging four hour class is designed to keep you safe and to keep you and your agency out of the headlines.

Our next class will be held on Thursday, February 16, 2017 from 1:00pm to 5:00pm, at the Seal Beach Police Department. Subject: The Impact of Trauma for First Responders - Thursday, February 16, 2017 in Seal Beach, CA

The Impact of Trauma for First Responders

First Responders are routinely exposed to traumatic incidents and daily pressures that require a strong and stoic toughness of attitude and temperament. The goal of this training is to create awareness regarding the signs and symptoms of burnout, understand normal reactions to a traumatic incident and to prevent PTSD and police suicide.

PRESENTER:

Heather Williams – Regional Peer Support Coordinator, Orange County Sheriff's Department

Heather spent 14 years as a Program Director for CSP Victim Assistance Programs and supervised all specialized victim units including Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, Homicide and Gangs. In addition, she developed and coordinated the Crisis Response Team. Heather was hired by OCSD as the Regional Peer Support Coordinator in 2014. She provides crisis counseling to law enforcement professionals, teaches classes on the Impact of Trauma for various first responder populations and helps develop and sustain peer support programs throughout Orange County law enforcement agencies. Using humor, professional experience and by creating a safe space, Heather will bring awareness to how our work has the ability to impact and change us. Heather has a Bachelor's Degree in

Psychology, Master's Degree in Criminal Justice and is currently in her Doctorate program for Psychology

GUEST SPEAKER:

Michael Beckman, Deputy Chief, Long Beach Police Department

Anguished by his son Stephen's suicide, Deputy Chief Beckman relates a powerful story of Stephen's life, death, and the profound personal and professional revelations that resulted from his passing. Audiences have been informed and inspired by his powerful testimony

Joe,

Sorry for the late reply to your email but unfortunately, I will not be putting a women's team together. I am playing on the POA team already and I believe Darlene is playing on another team as well.

See ya at the tournament.

Hello Darlene and Stephanie-

I hope this email finds you well. I was hoping you could help support our upcoming charity kickball tournament by helping to put together a team. We need 16 teams to have a successful event and we are a few teams short. It would mean the world to me if you could take on a leadership role and assemble a team of co-workers and friends, maybe an all women's team?

More information about this great, fun, worthwhile event is attached. If you have any questions, please let me know. Thank you in advance,

JOE

Hi Danielle-

Thanks for the email. My piece in LD # 42 is only a four-hour block. I also help schedule the recruits for a day long trip at the Museum of Tolerance. Unfortunately, the March 6 date will not work for me because I will be in South Carolina that week teaching. Do you have another 4-hour block I can swap with? I also need to know what tentative date you have scheduled for the Museum, because I have to make sure they can accommodate us. Thanks,

As of now you are set to teach on March 6, 2017, all day from 0800-1700. I don't see me having to change that schedule so if that works for you, we are set.

Three weeks prior to teaching your block of instruction Officer Roger Trias must have a copy of your lesson plan, power point, and all media being shown to the recruits. This can be submitted to him by email, inter-office mail, or by dropping it off. The Academy Coordinator, Sergeant J. Jacobs, must then review and approve all material before it is presented. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Officer Trias by email or phone (570-5948).

Thank you for your assistance. Feel free to email or call me with questions regarding scheduling, course curriculum, or testing.

Sincerely,

Crisis Intervention and Behavioral Health Training Course

Dear Law Enforcement Professional,

Are you equipped to deal with the ever-growing mentally ill population in your community? Do you have all the necessary tools to interact effectively with the mentally ill? Can you determine if a subject is on a substance, is mentally ill or has a developmental disability?

Today, police officers are becoming mental health first responders and are often inadequately trained for this task. Tragedies between the police and the mentally ill are occurring more frequent. One "bad incident" can cause devastation to families, the mental health community, police officers and police agencies. Sadly, we are also seeing police officers and police chiefs losing their careers over some of these high profile types of interactions, not to mention the civil penalties being awarded in these cases.

Embassy Consulting Services, LLC has trained over 6,000 law enforcement professionals on how to interact effectively with the mentally ill and is proud to announce it's newest 8-hour class titled "Crisis Intervention and Behavior Health Training". This course satisfies the requirements of Senate Bill 29 which mandates that all Field Training Officers receive 8-hours of Crisis Intervention Training. This class is co-facilitated by Dr. Elijah Levy, a clinical psychologist who has over 25 years experience working with the mentally ill and Josef Levy, a retired police commander who has over 30 years of law enforcement experience.

Please see the attached flyer for our upcoming class being held at the Seal Beach Police Department on Wednesday, November 16, 2016. Embassy is also accepting reservations to deliver this class at your agency. If you are interested in having your FTO's or other personnel trained, please contact Josef Levy at (562) 577-5874 or at embassyys@ymail.com.

Seats for this class will fill up fast, REGISTER TODAY!

Subject: We Need Your Support

Hello Friends-

I am asking for your support with our upcoming 6th Annual Chrissy Strong-Marshall Memorial Kickball Tournament. Chrissy was a Bureau Manager with the City of Long Beach Department of Parks, Recreation and Marine. Chrissy valiantly battled cancer for nine years until she passed away in 2009 at the age of forty. Chrissy was passionate about many things, including inclusiveness and helping others, by providing them with opportunities.

In her memory, friends and colleagues have been hosting an annual charity kickball tournament. This event brings together 16 teams, comprised of City Employees and friends for a fun filled day of kickball. All proceeds from the event are donated to the National Law Enforcement Cancer Support Foundation, the City of Hope and to City Employees who are going through a cancer journey.

This year's event is being held on Saturday, January 21, 2017 at El Dorado Park. Your support is needed by helping to form a team. I hope you will help facilitate getting at least one team together from your department/division. The entry fee for each team is only $250 and gives you an opportunity to participate in an old childhood playground experience, engage in team building, win the coveted trophy and maintain bragging rights for an entire year. Past participants have said "this was the most fun I have had with my work colleagues"

This is the only competitive event that brings together employees from throughout the city for a fun filled day of kickball, while raising funds for organizations that are helping those going through a cancer journey.

As always, the Long Beach Police Officers Association will be forming a team and also providing a BBQ luncheon to all attendees. There will also be a silent auction and opportunity drawings at the tournament. We are also seeing tournament sponsors which are $500.

Gabriel Cruz, from Parks, Recreation and Marine is handling team registrations and can be contacted at (562) 570-3204 or at Gabriel.Cruz@longbeach.gov

Thank you in advance and I look forward to seeing you at the tournament.

Crisis Intervention and Behavioral Health Training Course

Dear Law Enforcement Professional,

Are you equipped to deal with the ever-growing mentally ill population in your community? Do you have all the necessary tools to interact effectively with the mentally ill? Can you determine if a subject is on a substance, is mentally ill or has a developmental disability?

Today, police officers are becoming mental health first responders and are often inadequately trained for this task. Tragedies between the police and the mentally ill are occurring more frequent. One "bad incident" can cause devastation to families, the mental health community, police officers and police agencies. Sadly, we are also seeing police officers and police chiefs losing their careers over some of these high profile types of interactions, not to mention the civil penalties being awarded in these cases.

Embassy Consulting Services, LLC has trained over 6,000 law enforcement professionals on how to interact effectively with the mentally ill and is proud to announce it's newest 8-hour class titled "Crisis Intervention and Behavior Health Training". This course satisfies the requirements of Senate Bill 29 which mandates that all Field Training Officers receive 8-hours of Crisis Intervention Training. This class is co-facilitated by Dr. Elijah Levy, a clinical psychologist who has over 25 years experience working with the mentally ill and Josef Levy, a retired police commander who has over 30 years of law enforcement experience.

Please see the attached flyer for our upcoming class being held at the Seal Beach Police Department on Wednesday, November 16, 2016. Embassy is also accepting reservations to deliver this class at your agency. If you are interested in having your FTO's or other personnel trained, please contact Josef Levy at (562) 577-5874 or at embassyys@ymail.com.

Dear Law Enforcement Professional,

Are you equipped to deal with the ever-growing mentally ill population in your community? Do you have all the necessary tools to interact effectively with the mentally ill? Can you determine if a subject is on a substance, is mentally ill or has a developmental disability?

Today, police officers are becoming mental health first responders and are often inadequately trained for this task. Tragedies between the police and the mentally ill are occurring more frequent. One "bad incident" can cause devastation to families, the mental health community, police officers and police agencies. Sadly, we are also seeing police officers and police chiefs losing their careers over some of these high profile types of interactions, not to mention the civil penalties being awarded in these cases.

Embassy Consulting Services, LLC has trained over 6,000 law enforcement professionals on how to interact effectively with the mentally ill and is proud to announce it's newest 8-hour class titled "Crisis Intervention and Behavior Health Training". This course satisfies the requirements of Senate Bill 29 which mandates that all Field Training Officers receive 8-hours of Crisis Intervention Training. This class is co-facilitated by Dr. Elijah Levy, a clinical psychologist who has over 25 years experience working with the mentally ill and Josef Levy, a retired police commander who has over 30 years of law enforcement experience.

Please see the attached flyer for our upcoming class being held at the Seal Beach Police Department on Wednesday, November 16, 2016. Embassy is also accepting reservations to deliver this class at your agency. If you are interested in having your FTO's or other personnel trained, please contact Josef Levy at (562) 577-5874 or at embassyys@ymail.com.

>> I hope this email finds you well. I wanted to let you know about another valuable training course that we will be presenting titled "San Bernardino Mass Shooting, Lessons Learned- The Evolution of Radical Islam". This 8-hour class, being held on October 20, 2016, will include a debrief of the December 2, 2015 mass shooting that occurred at the Inland Regional Center in San Bernardino. The debrief will be conducted by San Bernardino Police Chief Jarrod Burguan. His debrief, held from 0800-1000 hours, will be followed by a question and answer session.
>> Following this presentation, Officer Abe Ashabi will present his popular class titled "The Evolution of Radical Islam". Officer Ashabi is an International Expert in Radical Islam and has presented to thousands of people throughout the United States. Officer Ashabi spent time in Afghanistan, assisting US Coalition Forces with Counter I.E.D. efforts. His direct, unabashed, raw style of delivery, has been known to not only inform, but engage his audiences. He will discuss the history and evolution of Radical Islam and the threat they pose to law enforcement.

Good Afternoon Commander Avila,

As you know, Embassy was contracted to design an 8-hour Procedural Justice Course and Train the Trainer for the Long Beach Police Department. The curriculum has been designed, as well as the expanded course outline.

Embassy is scheduled to conduct the Train the Trainer next week on August 11th and 12th.

I was hoping you would be willing to begin processing the payment for these services. I have attached the invoice for your convenience. If you have any questions please contact my assistant [REDACTED] at [REDACTED]. We thank you for your business and look forward to our continued partnership.

Thanks,
Joe

Good Morning Joe,

Both the ECO and the questionnaire look great. I am considering using some type of electronic survey tool to capture the information on your evaluation. Do you have any suggestions?

Attachments: San Bernardino Mass Shooting Class Flyer.pdf

Dear Friend of Embassy,

Thank you for your registration for our upcoming class "San Bernardino Mass Shooting-The Evolution of Radical Islam". This is a reminder that the class is being held on Tuesday, June 21, 2016 at Long Beach Memorial Medical Center, [REDACTED] Atlantic Avenue, Long Beach, CA.

The class will be held in the Van Dyke Theatre, which can be accessed by walking towards the main hospital entrance. There will be signs visible that will direct you downstairs, to the venue. Registration will be open at 7:00 am and there will be coffee, juice, fruit, yogurt and fresh pastries. Lunch is "on your own" however, afternoon snacks and cold water/soda's will also be provided. You may park anywhere in the main parking lot or parking structure, which you can enter off either Atlantic Ave. or Long Beach Blvd. Parking validation tickets will be given to all attendees, so there is no cost for parking.

The training will begin promptly at 8:00 a.m. with San Bernardino Police Lieutenant David Green. Lieutenant Green was at the December 2nd Mass Shooting incident and was the Incident Commander at the OIS Scene. He will provide an overview of the event and lessons learned, followed up with a question and answer session.

Following his two-hour presentation, Officer Abe Ashabi will deliver a very engaging and informative class on the Evolution of Radical Islam. Abe will educate you on the ever growing Radical Islam Movement and what law enforcement needs to know. The training day is scheduled to end at approximately 5:00 pm, after course evaluations are completed and certificates of completion are distributed.

Please be prepared to show your credentials when you arrive at registration. If you are paying at the door, we prefer cash or check, but we can also accept a credit card. We still have seats available in case others at your agency wish to attend. We have attached a flyer for your convenience. Should you have any questions, please feel free to call or email Joe Levy at (562) 577-5874 or at joe@embassyys.com.

We look forward to seeing you at the class.

Thank you,

The Impact of Trauma for First Responders

First Responders are routinely exposed to traumatic incidents and daily pressures that require a strong and stoic toughness of attitude and temperament. The goal of this training is to create awareness regarding the signs and symptoms of burnout, understand normal reactions to a traumatic incident and to prevent PTSD and police suicide.

PRESENTER:

Heather Williams – Regional Peer Support Coordinator, Orange County Sheriff's Department

Heather spent 14 years as a Program Director for CSP Victim Assistance Programs and supervised all specialized victim units including Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, Homicide and Gangs. In addition, she developed and coordinated the Crisis Response Team. Heather was hired by OCSD as the Regional Peer Support Coordinator in 2014. She provides crisis counseling to law enforcement professionals, teaches classes on the Impact of Trauma for various first responder populations and helps develop and sustain peer support programs throughout Orange County law enforcement agencies. Using humor, professional experience and by creating a safe space, Heather will bring awareness to how our work has the ability to impact and change us. Heather has a Bachelor's Degree in

Psychology, Master's Degree in Criminal Justice and is currently in her Doctorate program for Psychology

GUEST SPEAKER:

Michael Beckman, Deputy Chief, Long Beach Police Department

Anguished by his son Stephen's suicide, Deputy Chief Beckman relates a powerful story of Stephen's life, death, and the profound personal and professional revelations that resulted from his passing. Audiences have been informed and inspired by his powerful testimony

I'll pencil it in for 930 on the 4th of May. We can meet in my office (internal affairs) first floor of 400west.

Ryan, can you make that work?

The Impact of Trauma for First Responders

First Responders are routinely exposed to traumatic incidents and daily pressures that require a strong and stoic toughness of attitude and temperament. The goal of this training is to create awareness regarding the signs and symptoms of burnout, understand normal reactions to a traumatic incident and to prevent PTSD and police suicide.

PRESENTER:

Heather Williams – Regional Peer Support Coordinator, Orange County Sheriff's Department

Heather spent 14 years as a Program Director for CSP Victim Assistance Programs and supervised all specialized victim units including Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, Homicide and Gangs. In addition, she developed and coordinated the Crisis Response Team. Heather was hired by OCSD as the Regional Peer Support Coordinator in 2014. She provides crisis counseling to law enforcement professionals, teaches classes on the Impact of Trauma for various first responder populations and helps develop and sustain peer support programs throughout Orange County law enforcement agencies. Using humor, professional experience and by creating a safe space, Heather will bring awareness to how our work has the ability to impact and change us. Heather has a Bachelor's Degree in

Psychology, Master's Degree in Criminal Justice and is currently in her Doctorate program for Psychology

GUEST SPEAKER:

Michael Beckman, Deputy Chief, Long Beach Police Department

Anguished by his son Stephen's suicide, Deputy Chief Beckman relates a powerful story of Stephen's life, death, and the profound personal and professional revelations that resulted from his passing. Audiences have been informed and inspired by his powerful testimony

The Impact of Trauma for First Responders

First Responders are routinely exposed to traumatic incidents and daily pressures that require a strong and stoic toughness of attitude and temperament. The goal of this training is to create awareness regarding the signs and symptoms of burnout, understand normal reactions to a traumatic incident and to prevent PTSD and police suicide.

PRESENTER:

Heather Williams – Regional Peer Support Coordinator, Orange County Sheriff's Department

Heather spent 14 years as a Program Director for CSP Victim Assistance Programs and supervised all specialized victim units including Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, Homicide and Gangs. In addition, she developed and coordinated the Crisis Response Team. Heather was hired by OCSD as the Regional Peer Support Coordinator in 2014. She provides crisis counseling to law enforcement professionals, teaches classes on the Impact of Trauma for various first responder populations and helps develop and sustain peer support programs throughout Orange County law enforcement agencies. Using humor, professional experience and by creating a safe space, Heather will bring awareness to how our work has the ability to impact and change us. Heather has a Bachelor's Degree in

Psychology, Master's Degree in Criminal Justice and is currently in her Doctorate program for Psychology

GUEST SPEAKER:

Michael Beckman, Deputy Chief, Long Beach Police Department

Anguished by his son Stephen's suicide, Deputy Chief Beckman relates a powerful story of Stephen's life, death, and the profound personal and professional revelations that resulted from his passing. Audiences have been informed and inspired by his powerful testimony

I'll pencil it in for 930 on the 4th of May. We can meet in my office (internal affairs) first floor of 400west.

Ryan, can you make that work?

The Impact of Trauma for First Responders

First Responders are routinely exposed to traumatic incidents and daily pressures that require a strong and stoic toughness of attitude and temperament. The goal of this training is to create awareness regarding the signs and symptoms of burnout, understand normal reactions to a traumatic incident and to prevent PTSD and police suicide.

PRESENTER:

Heather Williams – Regional Peer Support Coordinator, Orange County Sheriff's Department

Heather spent 14 years as a Program Director for CSP Victim Assistance Programs and supervised all specialized victim units including Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, Homicide and Gangs. In addition, she developed and coordinated the Crisis Response Team. Heather was hired by OCSD as the Regional Peer Support Coordinator in 2014. She provides crisis counseling to law enforcement professionals, teaches classes on the Impact of Trauma for various first responder populations and helps develop and sustain peer support programs throughout Orange County law enforcement agencies. Using humor, professional experience and by creating a safe space, Heather will bring awareness to how our work has the ability to impact and change us. Heather has a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology, Master's Degree in Criminal Justice and is currently in her Doctorate program for Psychology

GUEST SPEAKER:

Michael Beckman, Deputy Chief, Long Beach Police Department

Anguished by his son Stephen's suicide, Deputy Chief Beckman relates a powerful story of Stephen's life, death, and the profound personal and professional revelations that resulted from his passing. Audiences have been informed and inspired by his powerful testimony

Use for the 21st Century", March 08, 2016 in Ontario, CA

Dear Law Enforcement Leader,

For decades, police officers have relied on the same use of force philosophies and the same tried-and-true tactics for violent encounters. While police agencies have come to depend on these traditional philosophies and tactics, they have failed to realize that policing has changed along with the public's expectations of its police departments.

When it comes to perceived excessive force by police, much can be attributed to the use of video and the advent of the internet which often times propagates negative images of police encounters. How often have we seen a legally justified police use of force end up being portrayed in the media as another incident of police brutality? While many uses of force are legally reasonable, the public often times views legally reasonable police actions as excessive, prompting civil unrest and public outcry for police prosecution.

Developed by Huntington Beach Police Lieutenant John Domingo, P.E.P. (Platform-Efficiency-Proficiency) has been in place at HBPD for eight years with positive results. Recently, the Anaheim Police Department adopted the same program with early indications showing similar positive results. P.E.P.'s aim is to reduce the number of force incidents and reduce the likelihood of injury and death to violent subjects as well as officers.

Dear Friends of Embassy,

Unfortunately, the Evolution of Radical Islam course that you are enrolled in has to be cancelled. The class instructor sustained an injury at work which will require him to have minor surgery. We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience this may create. Our hope is to reschedule this class in April.

If you have paid, we can apply your tuition to the class we will be rescheduling, or we can provide you with a full refund. Please reply to confirm you have received this email and what your wish is regarding your payment.

Thank you for your understanding,

Subject: Introducing a New Training Course for the New Year! "Effective Force Use for the 21st Century", March 08, 2016 in Ontario, CA ~ REGISTER TODAY!

Dear Law Enforcement Leader,

For decades, police officers have relied on the same use of force philosophies and the same tried-and-true tactics for violent encounters. While police agencies have come to depend on these traditional philosophies and tactics, they have failed to realize that policing has changed along with the public's expectations of its police departments.

When it comes to perceived excessive force by police, much can be attributed to the use of video and the advent of the internet which often times propagates negative images of police encounters. How often have we seen a legally justified police use of force end up being portrayed in the media as another incident of police brutality? While many uses of force are legally reasonable, the public often times views legally reasonable police actions as excessive, prompting civil unrest and public outcry for police prosecution.

Developed by Huntington Beach Police Lieutenant John Domingo, P.E.P. (Platform-Efficiency-Proficiency) has been in place at HBPD for eight years with positive results. Recently, the Anaheim Police Department adopted the same program with early indications showing similar positive results. P.E.P.'s aim is to reduce the number of force incidents and reduce the likelihood of injury and death to violent subjects as well as officers.

Seats for this training course will fill up fast, REGISTER TODAY!

Dear Law Enforcement Professional,

Recent terrorist events in the USA and abroad continue to serve as a vivid reminder that "we are living in a different world". A world where US Law Enforcement are on the front lines, not only fighting crime, but fighting terrorism. Understanding the history and ideology of extremist and radical terrorists can better help you understand these tragic events.

On January 7, 2016, a gunman claiming to have pledged allegiance to Islamic State Militants shot and seriously wounded a Philadelphia police officer in an ambush. This event, and others, are leaving law enforcement professionals asking themselves if this is the new normal. Come learn about the history and evolution of radical Islam and the threat they pose to local law enforcement

Embassy Consulting Services, LLC is presenting their eight-hour class titled "The Evolution of Radical Islam". This valuable class is being facilitated by Officer Abe Ashabi, who is an Internationally known expert on Radical Islam. Officer Ashabi will share his expertise and passion to help participants understand the historic and current issues related to modern day Islam and Terrorism. Because of Officer Ashabi's "down to earth" style, participants will walk away educated and with a better understanding of how history is impacting modern day terrorism.

Topics that will be discussed:

- Officer Safety Investigation Tools
- History of Islam & Sunni Shiite divide
- Israel, Neo Terrorism
- Afghanistan and Russian Invasion
- End of Cold War
- First Gulf War & Balkan War
- The Future of Terrorism
- Explosives
- Hostage Negotiation
- Iranian Revolution
- Hezbollah
- September 11th Terrorist Attack
- Current Affairs
- Understanding ISIS

This class should reach capacity so you are encouraged to REGISTER TODAY!

DATE: Thursday, March 24, 2016

TIME: 8:00am - 5:00pm

LOCATION: Long Beach Memorial Medical Center, Van Dyke Theatre

ADDRESS: [REDACTED] Atlantic Ave., Long Beach, CA 90806

COST: $85.00

Understanding the history and ideology of extremist and radical terrorists can better help you understand these tragic events.

On January 7, 2016, a gunman claiming to have pledged allegiance to Islamic State Militants shot and seriously wounded a Philadelphia police officer in an ambush. This event, and others, are leaving law enforcement professionals asking themselves if this is the new normal. Come learn about the history and evolution of radical Islam and the threat they pose to local law enforcement

Embassy Consulting Services, LLC is presenting their eight-hour class titled "The Evolution of Radical Islam". This valuable class is being facilitated by Officer Abe Ashabi, who is an Internationally known expert on Radical Islam. Officer Ashabi will share his expertise and passion to help participants understand the historic and current issues related to modern day Islam and Terrorism. Because of Officer Ashabi's "down to earth" style, participants will walk away educated and with a better understanding of how history is impacting modern day terrorism.

Topics that will be discussed:

- Officer Safety Investigation Tools
- History of Islam & Sunni Shiite divide
- Israel, Neo Terrorism
- Afghanistan and Russian Invasion
- End of Cold War
- First Gulf War & Balkan War
- The Future of Terrorism
- Explosives
- Hostage Negotiation
- Iranian Revolution
- Hezbollah
- September 11th Terrorist Attack
- Current Affairs
- Understanding ISIS

This class should reach capacity so you are encouraged to REGISTER TODAY!

Dear Law Enforcement Professional,

Recent terrorist events in the USA and abroad continue to serve as a vivid reminder that "we are living in a different world". A world where US Law Enforcement are on the front lines, not only fighting crime, but fighting terrorism. Understanding the history and ideology of extremist and radical terrorists can better help you understand these tragic events.

Dear Law Enforcement Professional,

For decades, police officers have relied on the same use of force philosophies and the same tried-and-true tactics for violent encounters. While police agencies have come to depend on these traditional philosophies and tactics, they have failed to realize that policing has changed along with the public's expectations of its police departments.

When it comes to perceived excessive force by police, much can be attributed to the use of video and the advent of the internet which oftentimes propagates negative images of police encounters. How often have we seen a legally justified police use of force end up being portrayed in the media as another incident of police brutality? While many uses of force are legally reasonable, the public oftentimes views legally reasonable police actions as excessive, prompting civil unrest and public outcry for police prosecution.

Developed by Huntington Beach Police Lieutenant John Domingo, P.E.P. (Platform-Efficiency-Proficiency) has been in place at HBPD for eight years with positive results. Recently, the Anaheim Police Department adopted the same program with early indications showing similar positive results. P.E.P.'s aim is to reduce the number of force incidents and reduce the likelihood of injury and death to violent subjects as well as officers.

Seats for this training course will fill up fast, REGISTER TODAY!
