

CULTURAL COMPETENCY FOR TODAY'S LAW ENFORCEMENT PROFESSIONAL

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE SEAL BEACH POLICE DEPARTMENT

OVERVIEW

Law Enforcement Professionals are dealing with many challenges, including how to interact and navigate through the diverse communities they are working with. Recent high-profile interactions have also strained police-community relations and has made the jobs more difficult. This interactive course will explore the historical relationships between law enforcement and the communities they serve.

This training will also examine the dynamics of culture, police culture, human relations and the impact they can have working with a diverse population. Students will also explore effective ways to increase public trust while working within the criminal justice system.

PRESENTERS

Chief Charlie Celano, Tustin Police Department (ret)

Charlie Celano is a recently retired police chief and has 27 years of law enforcement experience. Charlie has taught law enforcement professionals throughout the country and is a graduate of the FBI National Academy Class #258.

Commander Josef Levy, Long Beach Police Department (ret)

Josef Levy has close to 30 years of law enforcement experience and is a highly skilled facilitator who has conducted trainings for thousands of law enforcement professionals throughout the country. He has also trained at the International level, training law enforcement delegations from France, Germany, Israel and Russia.
